DYNAMIC Message LIVING

Charles Wilson

The dynamic Message life that is worth anything must have power at its heart; a power that is stronger than any explosive or electricity. But it comes at a high price. The Heavenly current does not get turned on until we make the connection; we do not keep it unless we maintain the contact ourselves. We choose between the supernatural dynamic and the human effort which is always inadequate. The only Christian life worth living is the life that follows Paul's blueprint — and Christ's. Not the one that's "right if it works in this century;" but the one that's "Heaven's own right: therefore it will conquer in the eternities." The mind must be made over to accept an entirely new set of values and dare to live by them--values that come down from above. These values are the new laws of holy living.

Dynamic Message Believers must have sincere love. They must not ever let their nice words come from the teeth out or let Satan poison their love with suspicion or resentment. They must have a hatred of sin. A love of the sinner who is committing the sin, but a hatred of the sin itself. There are two charges for every dynamo, positive and negative; there is no power until negative meets positive. To truly love God they must hate sin; to do good they must oppose evil; the closer to God, the stronger the revulsion against Satan. The greatest spiritual need of this present day is a keener sense of sin. Until then, no revival.

Dynamic Message Believers must have humility. Nothing is more subtle than the temptation to envy another's Christian stature. To grow in Christian stature, one must grow in love. With every bending of the heart to exalt another, with every glow of spirit over another's achievement, Christians not only become stronger themselves, but they strengthen the collective power of the church in its fight against sin. God, who "dwells in the high and holy place," dwells "also with him who is of an humble spirit." They must have patience. There is dynamite in patience. Once you know a person has decided to wait until you give in, you are done for. Therefore, Christians are sure to win; for they have set themselves to wait until the devil himself gives in.

Dynamic Christians pray about everything; they pray always in every situation. When they cease to pray, they soon cease to be Dynamic. They breathe by prayer; their spiritual lives depend on their contact with God. They work by prayer; they fight by way of the throne. They are full of helpfulness within themselves, but mighty through God, to the pulling down of the strong holds of Satan .

No Message Believer is so small or so insignificant as not to have a ministry of compassion and sympathy in which they can forget themselves. They may think they are giving, but they are really gaining--in love, in friends, in soul and Christian stature. When we have no homes or goods, we can still keep open home in our hearts. Sometimes a genuine smile or tear is worth more to a soul in need than food and drink. Finally, we must have perfect trust in God to live the dynamic Christian life.

God bless you Bro. Charles Wilson

I trust you are well. I recollect sitting in the Chapel at dear sis Joan's funeral Service and listening to the beautiful tributes paid to her by friends & family. She was a wonderful wife, Mom & friend to so many. And she left behind a tremendous Legacy for all who knew & loved Her. Brother Fred & I have been have been blessed in so many ways every time we visited you in Russell.

You & sis Joan would meet us at the Ferry and we would drive to your home to enjoy a lovely meal and fellowship and share in the blessings of God. Sis Joan had a special way of portraying the Love of God to all who knew her. I treasure the many times we gathered around the piano with sis Helen pounding those keys and all our voices would ring out as we sang this hymns from the Sacred Songs & Solos & Alexander Sankey hymnals. I was so certain of the Angel choir joining us as we sang those Beautiful Golden Oldies. I can still see sis Joan's face shining with the glow of heaven as she sang Praises to her Lord and Saviour. Our lives have been enriched knowing Her.

I can well imagine the welcome she received when she entered Heavens Portals and is now singing in the Angelic choir. I salute a life lived to the Glory of our Lord and Saviour. Thank you Sis Joan for living and giving so much to us all. I'll see you in the morning

Sis Doreen / Pastor Freddie Esau.

Dear precious Bro Charles,

Greetings in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ,

We are sorry to hear that Sister Joan passed beyond the veil. I now can still remember Sister Joan's lovely and kindly smile. We will miss her. May the Lord rest her gallant soul in peace and give you family's members a great consolation and comfort!

God be with you all for ever!

WHO AM I?

When I think of how He came so far from Glory
Came to dwell among the lowly such as I
To suffer shame and such disgrace
On Mt Calvary take my place
Then I ask myself this question
Who am I?

Who am I that a King would bleed and die for
Who am I that He would Pray
Not My Will but Thine Lord
The answer I may never know
As to why He loved me so
But to the old rugged Cross
He went for such as I

When I'm reminded of these words
"I'll leave Never
If you'll be true, I'll give to you Life Forever"
I wonder what I could have done
To deserve God's only Son
To fight my Battles until they're won
For who am I

Who am I that a King would bleed and die for
Who am I that He would Pray
Not My Will but Thine Lord
The answer I may never know
As to why He loved me so
But to the old rugged Cross
He went for you and I.

A Message School in Namwendwa

If anyone, church or individual, wanted to help support a worthwhile project, especially in its infancy, then this is a perfect opportunity.

The Eagles Nursery and Primary School, now in its second year, is a project by ex school teacher and current Message Pastor Stephen Ikomba in Uganda.

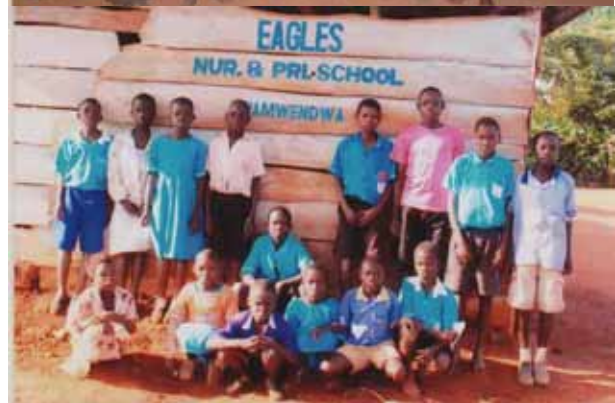

Comprising two sections, the Nursery with its 3-4 year old beginners, 4-5 year old middle learners aged 4-5 and the 5-6 year olds top class is the first section while the Primary School with seven classes for older students is the second section.

The aim is to train God fearing and self reliant citizens that are capable and willing to continue their learning and to pass that on to others. The Motto is, "We strive for success."

Included in the curriculum is discipline, morals and good practices aimed at protecting young girls who believe in the Message of the Hour. Like much of Africa AIDs is a really major problem, with the official figure of about 10% of the population being infected. It is likely that the official figures are low so pure living is more than good advice, it is a life saver.

Another commendably high aim is to have a future generation that is able to read, write and communicate in several languages. This way they can be more international in outlook and understanding.

Skills and knowledge to earn a living and even

"N" marks the small town of Namwendwa on the Kamuli to Kaliro Road in Uganda. Lake Victoria (blue area) is below, the large river to the west is the beginning of the River Nile own and run a business is essential in a country wanting to stand on it's own feet and where youth unemployment is currently up around 80%. In such a situation starting a business is very hard as "would be" customers have little or no money. The school offers training to children to prepare them not only for business but also as God fearing honest social leaders.

In the West we fragment roles and compartmentalise responsibilities whereas in countries like Uganda the people see a holistic approach knowing that each area of life, social, business, education, health, administrative and religious is intrinsically linked to all the others. The school aims to have students well rounded and ready to live in the globalised and technological world that we in New Zealand and other western countries take for granted.

Three directors guide the two committees, one for the nursery and another for the school, each with nine members. There are 10 teachers for the 188 boys and 216 girls plus Mr Godfrey Sooma who heads the teaching staff.

As always with any project there are needs. Some of the class rooms are incomplete and water supply is insufficient. Financial support for the school and for parents who simply cannot pay to support their children's education is needed as are school text books, library books, sports equipment and much more.

On the plus side the project has acquired enough land to accommodate planned future buildings, the staff are eminently qualified and energetic, and there is a well thought out and thorough work plan to benefit, not just the school, but church and society.

If you want to help in any way contact Pastor Stephen Ikomba: mal4prophecies@gmail.com

Urgent Appeal From Brother Ron Mellevo of the Philippines

Greetings in the most precious name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

It is with great anticipation that I write a personal letter about an urgent need that our church is facing right now.

Our small congregation which started with just a few members has now grown to more or less 120, and more and more people are getting baptized and are coming into the church lately through our Mystery Expo seminars. Since the last 20 years of our service to the Lord, I and our church members have been occupying the confines of our small residential house with the size of just 60 square meters to hold our weekly church services. Today, we could no longer contain these new converts as we are now overcrowded in our current little home.

Faced with this kind of situation, I and my wife Fleda, have decided to purchase a small piece of land for the sake of a new church venue using our little personal savings. This lot which is composed of 112 square meters has been fully paid by us, has clean legal title, and is now ready for occupancy.

As we embark on the construction of a separate small building for the church, we are in dire need of financial assistance for construction. With much prayers, we have actually started erecting the posts (photos attached) with the little amount of fund that our church have raised. But indeed, we are really short of budget to complete the project in actuality.

Any amount of financial support, therefore, which you can extend to us would be greatly appreciated. The project is estimated to cost us around US$ 18,000 to complete and what we have right now is just about only 4/10 of the needed fund. Some Pastors in New Zealand have already extended some donations but the funds still could not suffice.

Our goal and desire is to finish it by November this year, which will fall on our 20th year anniversary in this Message. Once this building is completed, we would be happy to invite all to the dedication and inauguration of this church building.

We are hoping that brother and sister churches throughout the world would assist us in any manner possible, as the Lord leads in brotherly kindness.

In Christ's love and service,

Brother Ron Mellevo

God Uses A Turbocharger!

Brother Adrian was driving back from Sister Joan Wilson's funeral in Tauranga. There was an ominous clicking noise from the engine but it was his wife, Sister Mary, who noticed the engine warning light on the dashboard. They pulled over and stopped at the beginning of the Awakino Gorge, a stretch of very twisty New Zealand road with steep hillsides on one side and a river that has claimed many a car and truck on the other. Cell phone coverage here is non-existent and the nearest village is 10 miles (16 kilometres) distant in either direction. There is only one house at the entrance to the gorge, so they called in to use the phone and get help.

Back in January of this year Anton Anchovic an English/Russian translator from the Ukraine had visited the Stratford church Adrian and Mary attend. Friends with Adrian he left behind a copy of his Russian translation of the Supernatural books of Owen Jorganson on the life of William Branham.

The lady of the Awakino Gorge house Adrian and Mary called was a Russian wife of a kiwi farmer. Russians are not a common nationality in New Zealand! While waiting for a car transporter they talked. Asked what he did Adrian mentioned his missionary work. She said she had been asking the Lord many questions. A Russian Orthodox, she claimed that the Orthodox and the Roman Catholic church was the first church in the Bible. Adrian responded that actually the first church had started an Upper Room in Jerusalem. That sent her mind spinning but she agreed with him and the conversation flowed deeper.

By the time the truck arrived they had talked for an hour and a half. Addresses were exchanged and Adrian and Mary found that this couple owned a second farm not 8 minutes from their own home just outside Stratford.

The turbo charger on Adrian's car was destroyed and now they needed the Lord's help to get from Pio Pio, where they had spent the night, back to Stratford some 80 miles (129 kms) away. With no rental cars in the local farming area the garage used a contact in Te Kuiti, the nearest town to another garage who had a Maxima as a courtesy car. They were allowed the Maxima for four days, no signed paperwork, no security, nothing! "This has to be the Lord", Adrian thought.

Two weeks later, having borrowed a nephews car Adrian and Mary decided to visit this lady at her home in Stratford. Remembering the Russian translation of the Supernatural book they took it along. Out of the front door with a big smile on her face came the Russian woman, saying, "I was just thinking of you!" Adrian handed her the book, beautifully wrapped by Mary and suggested she read it. October is Garden Festival time in Taranaki and she said she would read it and visit them during that time.

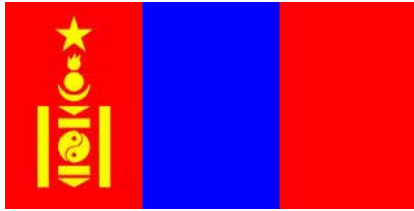

When Brother Anton heard the story from Adrian he was thrilled. Now there are many saints in Russia praying for this lady. We do not know the outcome yet but, as Brother Adrian says, a soul is worth hundreds of thousands of turbo chargers and just as the Lord had an aircraft held over for Brother Branham to meet one woman so it can be with us now with cars. He is the same God alive today.

LAND OF THE LIVING SKY

By Brother Dan Fehr
Of Canada

Mongolia

Exodus 23:30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.

Greetings from the “Land of the Living Sky”. I just completed my third trip to Mongolia. The work of spreading the Gospel in this, as yet unreached nation, is still very much in the planting stage. We firmly believe that there is elect seed here, but as I travel and minister, I can only wonder where? Who? When will they be found and how?

This trip began with my wife and I stopping to meet with two Mongolian families in Korea. They are Christians, trying to share what they know of the Gospel and reach out to the 30,000 Mongolians there. The Mongolian people can be found in many nations across Asia. These are not recent immigrants, but remnants of the era when Genghis Khan ruled the world from China to Europe nearly 800 years ago.

There is very little historical record of Missions work in Mongolia in the past. It has only been in the last 20 years that the work was begun in earnest. A little over ten years ago the first bible in the Mongolian language was finally translated. By this one can realize how great the need is for the Truth of God’s Word to be preached in Mongolia.

In preparation of our trip, we earnestly prayed for the Holy Spirit to lead us. By God’s grace we had many one on one meetings. We shared Christ with those in the guest house where we stayed. We also spoke to people on the street. This led to referrals to many others. This included church leaders, Buddhists and those who have never even heard the name of Jesus or even know what a bible is.

We were even invited to a Mongolian wedding. The bride and groom were leaders in separate churches and the groom invited me to preach in his church on Sunday. It was a very fruitful day as we met many other pastors and made more good contacts. It felt like I found a nice patch of berries to pick.

One pastor invited me to speak at a leader’s conference the next morning but I was already committed to visit some others in a village out in the country. Hopefully we will meet again so that I can arrange a future seminar to teach on the Mysteries of God revealed in the End Time. In one of the villages we ministered in, a leader that we shared the Message with said that two years ago she was praying and asking God where Elijah was. What a thrilling experience it was to read Malachi 4 and Matthew 17:11 to show her how that Elijah was promised – and had come with a Message of preparation for the Bride. Tears welled in her eyes. Her heart touched by the Word of God, she expressed how that she believes and sees in the Word how Elijah has come today.

As our time in Mongolia drew to a close, we were also able to baptize 19 people in the river. There were 46 people who wanted to come. A taxi and one mini bus were hired to take everyone to the river. Most of these were from one church, where I had baptized the pastor last year. Another was my Buddhist interpreter, Nancy. What a blessing it was to lead her to faith in Jesus Christ.

Because of heavy rains, the river was high and flooding. Just as we finished the baptism service a police car drove up. I wasn't sure what was going to happen next. Would they accuse a Canadian of trying to drown Mongolians in the river? As it turned out, he only came to give us pamphlets warning us of the dangers of being too close to the river. How thankful we were for the Lord's grace and protection for the work that has been done in Mongolia.

Your prayers would also be appreciated as we look to the Lord to lead us to those who can help to translate and print tracts and messages of the prophet, in the Mongolian language.

Your Brother in Christ,

Brother Dan Fehr

THE TEMPLE INSTITUTE

Third Temple Ready for Assembly

July 28 is the anniversary of the 1st and 2nd Temple destructions and the Temple Institute has released another new video clip (about 2 minutes long) expressing their faith and vision for the rebuilding of the 3rd Temple. The video is entitled "This Is The Generation."

As part of Mount Zion tours of Israel and Jordan Rabbi Richman of the Temple Institute normally joins the party for two days.

Rabbi Richman has a real spiritual link with Message Believers. Some years ago, Brother Ed Byskal led a tour to Israel. They were to visit Rabbi Richman but the bus was late arriving. Full of apologies for being late Brother Ed stepped of the bus. Rabbi answered, "We have been waiting for you for two thousand years!"

The Temple Institute is an organisation with the intention of rebuilding the third temple. After our tour of the Temple Mount with Rabbi Richman as our tour guide we walked to the Temple Institute located in the old city of Jerusalem. Of course you cannot have a temple without the priests garments, the menorah, the high priests blue ephod, breastplate, the silver trumpets and so on. And there they were. On display. It took a moment or two to realise that the Breastplate on the model High Priest's chest was not a copy, it is the real thing. When the third temple is built, this is the breastplate the High Priest will wear.

There was a 22 string harp on display in front of the Jubilee trumpets. We were told that each string is equivalent to a letter in the Hebrew script so that messages can be sung in music.

The altar of incense was there with a second

model, this time of a average priest complete in his priestly garments.

We saw the golden altar, the silver trumpets and the breastplate of precious stones. And they are precious! The second stone down on the left, for example, is a massive diamond. We had already seen the Menorah on display in a toughened glass cabinet overlooking the large public square at the wailing wall. The table of shewbread was also on display in one of the the Institute's display rooms. All of the equipment for the Third Temple is ready for the temple itself.

Someone asked if the Dome of the Rock was destroyed, say by an earthquake, how long would it be before work could start on erecting the third temple?

Rabbi Richman responded, "Ten minutes!"

Apparently the Temple is all ready for assembly. It is in kit set form, if that doesn't sound irreverent, and everyone involved knows what they are to do.

Someone else in the party asked about the Ark of the Covenant. Rabbi Richman smiled and said, "We know where that is."

Of course a Jewish Temple will need priests and that was another query. How could the priestly line be sorted out? The Hebrew term for priest, apparently is Kohen. Any male Jew with the surname Cohen is of the priestly line. It is that simple.

It seems all is ready for scripture to be fulfilled. The Jewish "children" are about to return to the "faith of their fathers" and reach out to include a Torah reading "patriarch" to join them in their excitement of seeing the cranes and construction on the Temple Mount. They have created an incredible visualization of what is soon to take place!

This video can be seen at the following link; http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=B6C_zfpEwUI&feature=youtu.be

22 String harp and the two silver trumpets

The pure gold Menorah

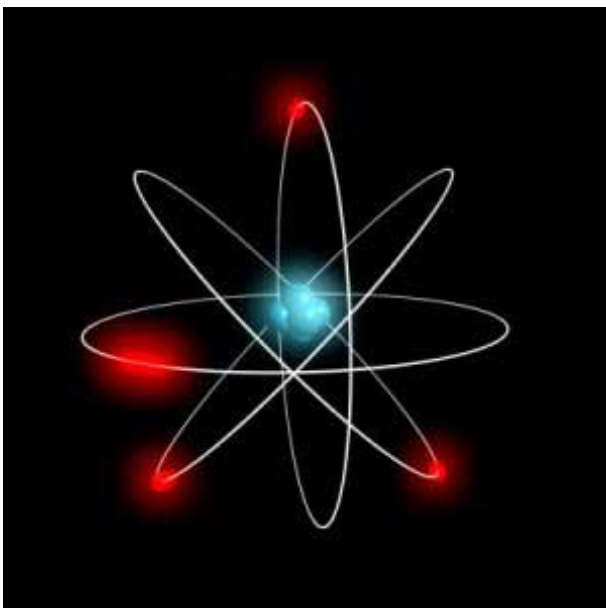

In 62-0318 The Spoken Word is the Original Seed Brother Branham said, “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Period! How long it took, that’s none of our business. Then he goes ahead and begins to bring in his time of putting speed in the earth. But, in the beginning, might have been hundreds of billions of trillions of years, aeons of time, but, God created the heavens and the earth. Period. That settles that.”

As the universe appears to be expanding its original starting point and time has been estimated. Scientists believe that the universe is 13.7 billion years old and started from nothing and expanded rapidly. This is called the Big Bang theory.

Science and the Bible are saying the same thing. Everything came from nothing tangible and over a long time. The difference for many is the cause. What went bang? And what made it go bang?

The two alternatives are pure chance or an intelligent designer.

When we look at the process of the big bang there is further factor. The current idea is that nanoseconds after the big bang there was a process where things called Higg’s Bosons helped form the tiny bits of material that would shortly help make up atoms. Until that point there was no basic laws of physics, because there was nothing physical.

Very quickly though, atoms were formed and the thirty five basic laws of physics came into existence.

Four of these forces are the strong nuclear, the weak nuclear, electromagnetic and gravity.

The strong nuclear force holds identically charged protons, the key part of an atom’s nucleus, together. We all know that like charges repel but here the strong nuclear force works the reverse of what we would expect. And it becomes stronger if the protons start moving apart!

The weak nuclear force allows the sun and other stars to break down simpler elements to make heavier elements and thereby produce heat, light and materials like carbon, iron etc.

The electromagnetic force allows different atoms to stick together to make molecules. Water, for example is two atoms of hydrogen and one of oxygen. And there would be no life without water. Gravity allows large bodies to attract more particles. This allows stars, planets and galaxies to form.

These four laws are absolutely necessary for a universe and life to exist. Each one has a specific strength or value. And here’s the really interesting bit.

If any one of these four laws, or any of the thirty one, had a slightly different strength or value then it seems the universe and us couldn’t exist. Each value is so finely tuned relative to all the others that it allows our planet to circle the sun and for us to be alive.

Out of the vast range of possible strengths for each of the laws everything is just right for us. The mathematical chances of the big bang just happening to settle all laws at their current strengths are more than astronomical. They are impossible.

The universe, our galaxy, our solar system and our world seem designed for life on earth.

Hello God.

ONLY LENT!

We were married long ago...
Where the time flies...we don't know.
Children come, and children go...
Just like some spontaneous show!

Yet it seems but yesterday,
We to each did humbly say,
"I am yours for love, not pay;
Good or bad, we say not 'nay'."

That was said before our God;
And on all He gave His nod.
Even when beneath the sod,
We will lie like peas in pod!

And though testings rock our boat,
By His grace we keep afloat.
But please take a careful note:
We are just two humble folk,
Who are but lent to each other...
For Another is our Lover!
And He'll come to claim His Own
to sit with Him upon His throne!...
As to Him we faithful keep -
He our Shepherd, we His sheep,
Till the end, though way be steep;
Though we smile, or though we weep.

'Neath the sod?'not really so!
For our soul (as time will show),
Will be, yes, far far away,
Where's no time, and all is day...
Though not wed to one another,
But to Him Who is our Lover...
Dying once that we forever,
Both might live, and sever...NEVER!

Overcoming! It's You That Has To Overcome

We have a young man at home and he had been in and out of church for years, since he was a baby. I've preached to him no doubt thousands of sermons.

He's been out on drugs and I'd been at the altar with him, prayed with him, no doubt for hundreds of hours and I'd tried to cast devils off of him day after day after day and he'd be in prison and out of prison, in prison and out of prison.

Here about a year and a half ago he calls me and says "Hey Bro Ron, I need you to baptise me".

I said "No, I probably haven't seen you for over a year and I'm not going to baptise you."

"Well, I'd like you to counsel with me."

And I said, "No, I'm not going to counsel with you."

"Well, I'd like to talk to you."

I said, "Well, I'll start talking somewhere 7.30 Sat night. I'll be talking probably for about an hour, and you'll be listening. If you're really sincere, you'll come and listen to me talk for about an hour."

He said, "But Bro Ron that don't seem fair."

I said, "listen, it's not me that's got to overcome. It's you that has to overcome."

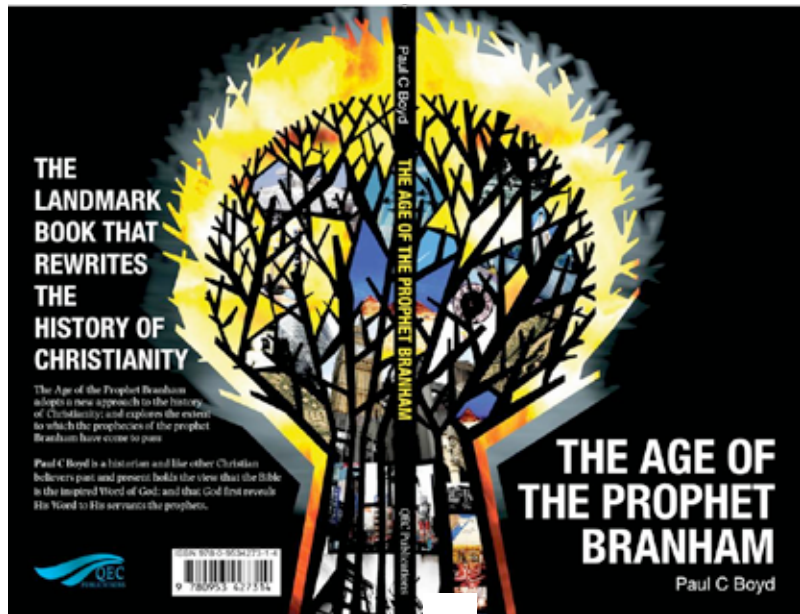

I've met God for myself. Somewhere or another you've got to meet God. Somewhere or another you've got to do some praying. Somewhere or another you've got to do some overcoming."
