The devil is the biggest copycat there ever was. He can't come up with anything on his own. He can't create like God, and it drives him up the wall. The only thing he's been up to since forever is checking out what God is doing and then trying to impersonate it. WHAT A LOSER!!!

He is the Papa of this age and has lots of children. His kids are copycats too. They don't want to take the reality of God that Christians know, so they try to swallow something that looks like the real. In fact, it looks very much like the real thing, but it's not. This is the age of virtual reality. Today, young people find themselves in a great challenge! To seek for the real or fall for what looks just like it! YQN

Father, we are tired of impersonations of Christian life. Create in us, Lord, today, a new heart, a new spirit. And put your Spirit, according to your prophet's Word, in the middle of our new spirit.

Youth Quake is a publication for young people inspired, in part, by the Message and ministry of William Branham (1909-1965). The Bible clearly indicates that we are living in the closing days of time for the Gentiles. According to Malachi 4, a prophet was promised to come and bring an "Endtime Message" to gather the living Bride of Christ and prepare her for the Second Coming.

We believe that William Branham was the very fulfillment of Malachi's prophecy and the Message that he brought contains something for all people, including the "young of the flock," Jeremiah 31:12. More information is available about this endtime Message of Brother Branham, which may be obtained from the publisher of this paper. We trust that the articles and information presented will be a great blessing to all the young and old members of His flock.

GET REAL!

by Paul LaFontaine

When I was in Junior High School, the hottest thing going was Izod brand clothes (the ones with the alligator on the front). All the preppie kids wore them. Clothes with the alligator were expensive and all the preppies could afford to buy them, or at least their parents could. I wanted something with an alligator emblem so bad it hurt. I know...peer pressure. Honestly, I really liked them alligators. They were cool.

Walking through K-Mart one day, I found the answer to all my problems. K-Mart picked up on the popularity of the alligator and made their own belts with an alligator on the buckle. It looked just like the real thing. Now don't anybody kick me out of the Message because I bought an alligator belt buckle instead of an eagle. The first day I wore it I was so proud. I had seen lots of alligators, but never on a belt buckle. I began to realize after the first day though, no one really noticed. It killed me, because I knew I only had an imitation. I didn't have the real thing. Finally, one of the preppie girls noticed it and asked me the fatal question. "Where did you buy your belt?"

"Uh... at a store," I replied. Pretty general response. I know...all because of peer pressure. Seems like this article should have been on peer pressure, but it's not. It's about imitation of the real.

The world is full of imitations and substitutes.

Margarine substitutes real butter. Sweeteners substitute real sugar cane. Pressboard wood has an oak finish that looks just like oak. They can even make a jacket, made from plastic, look like real leather. We have artificial flavoring, plants, and teeth. What a day!

One of the youth at our church came in the youth meeting recently with a Rolex watch on. I knew his parents could not afford a watch that expensive, so I figured it had to be one of two things. The watch was a cheap imitation or the young man had robbed a bank. I didn't hear him repenting to us, so evidently it was an imitation Rolex. It sure looked real though.

You probably already know what this is leading up to, so why don't I just say it. The natural is always a type of the spiritual. If this age is full of all this artificial stuff, then it shows there is a work of Satan trying to imitate a real Christianity too. He's trying to take the real thing that God sends and present a substitute for everyone.

Take a look at these scriptures and see if you can identify Satan's end time effort to get us away from the real thing. Matthew 24:23-28, "Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Behold, I have told you before. Wherefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not. For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For wheresoever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together." Things would look so close it would be hard to tell the difference. This is why my burden for you guys is so great. Satan is so deceiving. He works so hard to confuse young people on the experience of receiving the Holy Ghost. Let's not push all of Satan's deception on denominations. Sometimes he works right amongst those "in" the Message.

Verse 24 said, "false Christs." Christ means anointed one. In other words, anointed but false. Obviously from the scripture, these false anointed ones are always pointing us in directions other than the simple Message. Lo here, lo there...hey...he's in the desert. Hey...he's over here in the secret chambers. They seem to be hyped up on pointing us to every place and thing besides the carcass, which by the way, is the real thing and is where all the eagles gather. Praise God!!! The reality of God is always found in the

A Prayer Request!

Greetings in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. I am the father of a young man called Jonathan who is 20 years of age.

Up 'til two years ago, he was following the Lord and living a good clean life. Then, he fell to the pull of the world. He is a fellow that likes company of his own age, but our small church had no one of his age to give him this companionship, so slowly he slipped away until the day came when he gave up church altogether and started going around with a crowd who do not know the Lord or want to.

What I would like, is that all the young people who read Youth Quake News would pray for Jonathan that he will see the error of his ways and what the end will be and turn again to serve the Lord.

I ask this because YQN reaches around the world and continual prayer could be offered up to the Lord for him. Also, at the same time, there is a young woman, age 21, Margaret, who lived in Dunedin, New Zealand who also has gone into the world. Would you pray for her too?

Thank you and God Bless you all!

Parson to Person

Bro. Ron & Sis. Sandy Peterson

Dear Christian friend,

We send you greetings in the precious name of Jesus Christ. My name is Ron Peterson and I am the Pastor of Evening Light Fellowship in Phoenix, Arizona. My wife Sandy and I have been married 21 years this July. God gave us three lovely children; Amos (20), Rebekah (18), Matthew (17). My parents are not religious people and my father was a jockey in thoroughbred horse racing. We traveled a lot when we were children, so that my father could follow the racing circuit. I have an older sister named Janice, and an identical twin brother named Don. Never at anytime in our lives growing up, did our parents take us to church. Every time we would walk by a church there was something in my heart that longed to go inside and worship God.

Having lived in many different states as a younger child, most of my youth was spent growing up in Los Angeles County, in the city of Monrovia. In school I was active in many different sports, namely basketball, football, and baseball, but my true love was surfing the waves along the coast of California. Just another California surfer in search of the perfect wave.

I had gotten involved with the wrong crowd at an early age and began to play with drugs while still in junior high school. A close friend of mine Mitch Buckingham, had become a Christian one school year and that summer when we moved to Solana Beach for the racing season, he began to witness to my twin brother and me about Jesus Christ while we were out surfing. I had never known a "born again" Christian before and quite honestly, it was all very new to me, but something inside was longing to hear more about this man named Jesus Christ. My friend kept on asking my brother and I to go to a Bible study that was sponsored by the pastor of his local church. After giving him a thousand excuses on why not to go with him, one day the surf was bad, no girls on the beach, and no party scheduled for that night, my brother and I finally consented to go with him, but only if he would quit bugging us about going again if we didn't like it the first time. We were warmly welcomed and everyone seemed to be happy about being there. They all appeared to really enjoy their love relationship with Jesus Christ. We sat in a circle and read in turn a portion of scripture and when it came my time to read my verse, right in the middle of my reading, someone began to rejoice and said, "Praise the Lord. That's real meat." Well, I read my verse again and now even more persons there began to praise the Lord, and comment on the verse without my being able to finish the verse. I questioned myself as to what they were seeing, for it had no real meaning or significance to me at that time. Others began to read their verses of scripture, and the whole scenario would take place again. Now I was really puzzled. Why can't I see what they are seeing? A little confused and quite perplexed at all of this, the pastor could see that I was troubled about something. He asked, "Are you a Christian?" "No," I answered back. It was then and there I had the new birth experience told to me. Excitement and joy began to grip me, and my heart was pounding within me. To actually think that God was interested in me personally. It was during one of those Bible studies that I had given my life to Jesus Christ, and had experienced being saved. What a thrill it was to have God in control of my life. I was fourteen really to fit in my heart, but at least it satisfied my questioning for the moment. Finally, one night at a church service in Costa Mesa, California at Calvary Chapel, a brother was preaching on receiving the Holy Ghost. My, did my heart burn within me as he began to talk on these things. Fully convinced that I was lacking the Holy Ghost, I went forward during the invitation, and was prayed for by the preacher to receive the Holy Spirit. He laid hands on me and began to instruct me in speaking in tongues. He told me to just babble something and let it flow from within. "Just babble years old at that time, and for the next four years in high school, I was constantly going to Bible studies, many different churches and Christian youth functions, even becoming a part of the Billy Graham Crusade team as a counselor for the youth convention in Anaheim, California in 1969.

The more I read my Bible, the more I kept coming across the part about believers being filled with the Holy Ghost. Upon asking many of my Christian friends about the Holy Ghost, I got a myriad of different answers. Most of them said that God no longer does that today, that the Holy Ghost only was for the disciples. Well, none of the answers seemed on," he told me, even giving me a personal demonstration how to do it. I mimicked what he had spoken and he raised my hands into the air, shouting to everyone there, "Praise the Lord! Here is another one who has just received the Holy Ghost! Brother, don't doubt it now, just rejoice and thank the Lord you got it." He kept admonishing me from the platform. I rejoiced for a few moments shouting, "I got it, I got it!!" Then, feeling like the biggest hypocrite in the world for faking out everyone there, I admitted within myself, I ain't got It! Why didn't God give it to me? I was crying and just as sincere as I could be. Perhaps God doesn't love me enough,

Let's Check it Out!

God is a God of reality. Don't just take a creed. Don't just take a sensation. Take a reality! Take a real God, something that God is, a God of reality. That gives you assurance. It gives you hope. It gives you faith. It gives you the Spirit. It gives you signs. It gives you wonders. It does in you just like it did in Christ. Because, that was His purpose of coming, to bring God to man, and made God and man one.

Hollywood Hypocrites

Did you ever wonder where the idea of acting come from? You know.... the thing they do in a play or a drama where people throw themselves into being someone else. Hollywood is a whole kingdom of acting, but they sure didn't come up with the idea themselves. God is the fountain of reality. He never endorsed an idea that men try to be somebody they are not. Matter of fact...God hates hypocrisy. Acting can be traced only back to one source, the deceiver himself. Satan was acting like some kind of spokesman of God's Word when he deceived Eve. He is the best impersonator there ever was.

II Corinthians 11:13-14 says, "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light." Through the Bible there are different places where people did a little acting. Such as, Jacob putting on a costume and acting like Esau his brother in order to deceive his father. The most pitiful sight in scripture though is the actors found during the time that Jesus was on the earth. They were great actors, but they were acting out the righteousness of God. Jesus didn't hold anything back as you will see in these scriptures. Matthew 23:27-28, "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ye are like unto whited scepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity." These guys could really put on a show. Look at these scriptures... Matthew 6:2,5,16 "Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and the streets that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you they have their reward. ....and when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you they have their reward. ....Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men as to fast. Verily I say unto you they have their reward." What's the problem with all of this? It's not real, it is acting. Have you guys ever seen people try to act so spiritual? They have to have all the attention? When they give, everyone has to know what has been done. When they fast...it's like they bought bigger size clothes to show how much weight they lost from their fast. People try to act, talk, and dress like Brother Branham as if that makes them closer to God. I'm not knocking that, but really I am. It's all a show. It's all something outward. This Message cries against showmanship of Christianity. That is why the prophet spoke so severe about Hollywood and all that goes with it. The spirit behind it enters into the church. Look what he said here in the Message Pride, 1955, "What does the word Pharisee mean? In the Greek it means a actor. Someone who acts. Oh..I hate that, somebody acting, trying to put on. I despise such a thing. Many times people are trying to act like the other fellow. Listen, you quit trying to act like the next fellow and just act out your own convictions and you get along better. Be yourself. That's right. You see so many children going to the picture show, come back home and want to act like the actress. Shame on you. In Hollywood, Los Angeles, I have many services out there, and I find out that the most of the people that's growed on the whole environment of the American people to act. Were great actors, Pharisees. There they are; you'll see them; they're before the screen so much until they're always acting. In the American people through television, and through picture shows they have seen so much of the put on, until they become put-ons themselves. Too bad. And we get it in the church, actors. Hmm... God don't want them. Far be it from us to be actors. Be yourself; God wants you to be that way."

Today, we even have superstars in "Christian" music. People who have been lifted up as great Christians. Can they sing? Oh Yes!! They can even sing in an anointed way. Michael English was winner of top Dove awards April 28, 1994. One week later he turned all of his awards back in because of an affair with another woman who sang with him. He can sing the old song, "I Bowed on My Knees and Cried Holy" and give you shivers down your spine. It

My young daughter..... called me to watch, said, "We're going to turn the television on, some singing quartets," or whatever it was..... But I just had it in my heart to criticize that, because it just looked to me like some kind of Hollywood put on, just a lot of carrying on. It didn't seem like the sacredness it should. And they sang those hymns in rock and roll time, and gold slippers on. And has it come that the Gospel has become a show? Why, if that's what it is, I don't want nothing to do with it. I want something that's real and genuine, and we want to keep it that way.

HONDURAS REPORT

As you read in our last Youth Quake, several of us made a trip to Honduras, March 28 through April 2 to take part in their first Youth Camp. Before I say anything, I would like to offer thanks again for all the special offerings supporting Central American youth to go to the camp. They too would express their deepest gratitude. The money sent in covered a great portion of the young people attending.

Before we got to Honduras, the devil had a little fun trying to keep us from going. Our tickets were booked on Sahsa Airlines (a Honduran airline). Sahsa went bankrupt the Friday before we were to leave. Our carrier in the United States was US Air. We had three young people flying from New York, one from Virginia, and four from Dayton, Ohio. We were all to meet in Miami, Florida, and fly on to Honduras from there. The rest of the young people didn't have any problems with their Apollo travel." We included the article here in this issue.

Through all this trouble, we still made it, and God abundantly poured out His Spirit in the meetings. Bro. Vince Kent from Detroit, Michigan., Bro. Elijah Gibbs from Connecticut, and myself did all of the preaching. They rented a camp facility in the mountains, surrounding Tegucigalpa. It was such a beautiful location. It was a lot cooler there than in the city. The facility was much like the campgrounds here in the States. God really moved and spoke to the 150 young people from Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, and El Salvador.

We had a wonderful time. It's hard to describe.

Special thanks to Brother William Sanchez from Lorain, Ohio for going with us and interpreting. Also Brother Danny Torres, a young person from Orlando, Florida went with us and interpreted some of the preaching for his first time. Thanks Brother Danny and God bless you.

May God also bless Brother Melchisedec and all the saints from his church in Tegucigalpa. Many souls were brought to God because of the labors put forth.

May God receive glory for all that's been done. We greet world. Hearing about the many souls saved and sealed into the kingdom and of their unwavering faith in God, I have often wondered about the people. Who are they and what is life really like for them?

"I have often wondered about the people. Who are they and what is life really like for them?"

This spring I was honored with the opportunity to travel to Honduras with other young people from the United States, to be a part of the first Honduras Youth Camp, and experience first hand what God is doing overseas. I have always wanted to make a trip such as this, never realizing that I would one day have that opportunity.

My first and lasting impression of the Honduran brothers and sisters was of a people filled with God's love; expressed through their selfless giving of themselves to others. From the moment we stepped out of the Tegucigalpa Airport to be met by Brother Melchisedec, Brother Lisandro, and a dozen other precious brothers, I felt right at home in their rugged, yet beautiful, country.

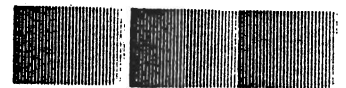

During the many services and morning sessions, I noticed a deep respect for God among the youth. All were attentive to God's Word and entered into worship with such zeal and enthusiasm. I especially noticed how many of the young people always knelt in prayer before a service, whether they were thirty minutes early or running a minute late.

I was most encouraged to see a hunger for more of God among my new found friends in Christ. I soon realized that although they do not have an abundance of this world's goods, which tend to pull people away from God, they still face the many spirits prevalent in this age. They struggle against the pull of the flesh; yet, I detected a certain determination to keep pressing on! Most importantly, I realized the youth of Honduras and the other Central American countries need our prayers because they face trials, just as we face them.

In truth, I believe I was among God's Elect in that youth camp and I know I will one day see my precious brothers and sisters again. I believe we will one day take that final step together.

Sister Julie Horn
Roanoke, Virginia

I thoroughly enjoyed the week we spent with the Believers in Honduras. We went down to be a blessing to the youth, but I was just as much or more encouraged as I was an encouragement. It is so hard to capture the "feeling" of the week on paper, but here are some of the highlights of the trip for me.

The Honduran people were very welcoming and accepting of us as "Americanos." Throughout the week they remained gracious and hospitable. One thing that made an impression on me was how close I felt to the Believers there, despite the language barrier. I felt such a "kindred spirit" with them and I know it was the same Holy Spirit in each of us reaching out to the other. I was so different in language, color, and customs; but, I was more like them than most people from my own culture, thanks to the bond of Christ.

One characteristic of the Honduran youth that I noticed was their ability to have fun with minimal props. They certainly do not need to be entertained. We played volleyball over a rope tied between two poles and had a great time! It really worked better than our American net, because as more joined

Two CRS Listings for Flight Lead to Confusion

BY ERNEST BLUM

MIAMI — Two Central American carriers are listed in reservation systems as operating the same daily flight from Miami to Honduras — a situation that is causing confusion in the trade.

The 2:30 p.m. daily departure from Miami to San Pedro

Sula, Honduras, is listed as TACA International Airlines flight 391 and as Sahsa Honduran Airlines flight 811.

That is because Sahsa is leasing equipment and crews from TACA, which also has government approval to carry its own traffic on the same plane.

Sahsa, which began flying to the U.S. in the mid-1980s after merging with TAN Airlines, stopped flying its 737-200 aircraft in January when it could no longer pay its insurance premiums, according to industry sources.

The Airlines Reporting Corp. said Sahsa is still a member of the area settlement plan.

Although TACA advises agents to use its plates instead of Sahsa's, it said it will accept tickets in the U.S. booked on Sahsa until further notice.

USAir, however, informed agents that it will no longer accept Sahsa-plated tickets routing clients from U.S. cities to Miami; the trips, it said, should be rebooked on TACA.

Apollo Travel, based in Lima, Ohio, ran into problems when it booked a missionary group on a Sahsa flight.

The group was to arrive in Miami from several U.S. cities before flying to Honduras, but USAir did not accept the tickets from all of the originating cities, according to the agency.

Similar confusion exists over Sahsa's New Orleans service.

Four weekly flights to San Pedro Sula are listed in CRSs as Sahsa flight 671.

Those flights are operated by Lacsa, according to a representative for that line, which also uses the number 671.

As part of its advisory on Sahsa, USAir told agents that it would no longer accept the Sahsa tickets to New Orleans and that passengers should be rebooked on Lacsa.

TACA, Central America's leading carrier, recently launched U.S. sales and marketing campaigns with Lacsa and three other regional lines.

The consortium is represented by a new Miami-headquartered marketing company, American Central Corp., whose Southeast U.S. regional manager, Larry Waterman, also advised agents to stop using Sahsa plates and to switch to those of TACA or Lacsa.

Sahsa changed its Miami office number to a nonpublished listing. To obtain information about Sahsa, TACA or Lacsa, agents can call American Central Corp. at (305) 876-0036.

tickets until their trip home, but the four of us out of Dayton had problems leaving. The US Air ticket agents would not honor our tickets. He made us buy brand new tickets before we could get on the flight. This was very hard to handle. (Please pray for us as we are still trying to get some kind of reimbursement for all this trouble). When we got home, we realized our situation had been reported in a travel magazine. They referred to us as "a missionary group, booked with

GET REAL!

Present Truth. This Message sent from God through Brother Branham is the real thing. Don't ever swallow anything different. The real Spirit of God cannot be found in something from years in the past. It's in today's fresh carcass. Even if you young people see others fall away from God (People you thought had the real thing), don't let that waver you. That does not mean that God is not real. Get your eyes off those people and put them on the reality of Christ and this Message, then seek Him for yourself. I don't know about you, but I don't want any substitutes of the real thing. I want the real because God promised

I can have it. I believe you want the real too. Shaking the preachers hand, hanging around good fellowship, or even an emotional workup is not good enough. Get something deeper than that. Some of you really need a true experience of the Holy Ghost. I found this quote that I believe will help. In You Must Be Born Again, on page 28 Brother Branham says, "But the true Word comes to the true prophet, and he tells you the true Word. You follow that true Word, and you get a true experience of the Word because the Word is made flesh in you, and you become God's son, and the Word of God is revolving right out of God into you, because you are His nature, His Spirit is in you and you'll do the works of God." Did you see how simple the prophet made it? Just follow the true Word and you'll get a true experience. Satan tries to complicate things so much. Following the real Message with all your heart can only produce a real Holy Ghost walk with the Lord in a believer. It goes with the territory. Real justification, sanctification, baptism of the Holy Ghost, and the Life of Christ in you are found in the real true Word that has been sent.

I may not get all the real alligators I want in this life, but I know one thing I can have, the real Holy Spirit and you can have it too.

Parson to Person

or even worse, I thought God had rejected me. Devastated is not the word for how I felt. It was there I turned my heart away from the things of God, and began from that time on to do my own thing in the world.

Surfing, drugs, and rock-n-roll filled my time where it had once been filled with Christian activities. Now having become seven times worse, I was out of control in my life, but I really didn't care. I felt in my heart that God had rejected me. I tried to drown out the pain of rejection that was in my heart with the things of the world, but why wasn't I happy in doing those things like everyone else around me? I couldn't even be a happy sinner.

Having met my wife at a youth camp in Woodleaf, California the summer before, she was my girlfriend during this time and she saw the drastic change in me, from being a Christian to now living like the devil. She began to pull away from me, for she knew that I would only bring her down in her walk with God. Now even my girlfriend has rejected me. This was the lowest point in my life. I went one evening to a church service in La Jolla California, for no one knew me there and I could just stop in to see what they were preaching. The brother was trying to prove by the scripture that the church would go through the tribulation, and that there was not going to be a rapture of the church. When he got done, a man in the congregation stood up and screamed out, "You're a false prophet, The church will not go through the tribulation, and there will be a rapture. That's Thus saith the Lord!" My, did the place break out in utter chaos. When the host pastor got the place settled down once again, he had told the congregation that they would listen to any man's doctrine as long as it was brought in love. Suddenly the man who was sitting next to the man who called the preacher a false prophet stood up and said he would like to bring us the doctrine of William Marrion Branham. The place exploded, and the host pastor had to beat away the other ministers from trying to get to the pulpit to air their opinion. The host pastor said, "Of all the doctrines in the world, Branham's doctrine will NOT be taught here, even if it was brought in love." This blew my mind. He just contradicted his own prior statement. I inquired to the man sitting next to me asking him, "Who is William Branham?" He had never heard of him, but I remember telling him that I was fixing to find out real soon.

mine at a leather shop, there was a sign on the door. Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ the Same Yesterday, Today, and Forever." Having just gotten done smoking pot, I was in no mood to have someone witness to me, so I decided to not say a word about God to these people. To make a long story short, they witnessed to my brother and me that night and everything they were saying was just bombing me right on top of the head. They asked if they could pray for me, and I said, "No." They asked if I desired to quit doing drugs. I said, "No." They asked me if I was sick, and before I could really think about it, something inside of me said, "Yes." They told me that the Bible says to lay hands on the sick and they shall recover. They now went to get some oil to anoint me with and when they left the room, I fell on my knees under the conviction of the Holy

Meet the youth from Phoenix, AZ

Dear Youth Quake Reader,

We greet you in the precious name of Jesus Christ. As a Pastor of a Message church in the end time, I am deeply concerned over the young people of today. Upon considering the quote above, we can truly see that our enemy, the devil, is certainly refining his ways of enticement toward the youth of today.

The battle is raging and the forces of light and darkness are engaged in bitter conflict with one another. Realizing the fact that young people today are fighting against even greater odds and temptations than we did as teenagers growing up, I can sympathize with your struggle to live a clean and holy life for God. With this in mind, let me encourage you that our God knew this would happen and He has not forgotten to send you what you have need of to prepare for the conflict. As the tactics of warfare have greatly advanced from the days of spears and swords to laser guided missiles and nuclear weaponry, so has our spiritual weaponry advanced to 20th century technology by God sending us a messenger with a Message that would enable us to engage the enemy and "fight the good fight of faith". As in every age before us, God Himself has provided a way for the Believer to conquer and even possess the gates of the enemy.

Having ministered to many young people throughout America, Canada, and Europe, it is encouraging to see the effects of the gospel in their lives and to see them being energized by the Holy Ghost revelation with power to overcome the tests and trials we all go through. One should never look at the negative or discouraging things that are happening around the Message today. The devil will use that against you if you allow it, and give you every excuse why you shouldn't serve Christ. It is time to start focusing on the positive side of things and allow the Lord to fill us and use us as vessels for His glory. As Joshua and Caleb tried to encourage the children of Israel to take the land that God had spoken, let us also lend our ear to those who are giving a positive report that we are indeed more than able to take the land. Be encouraged young people and serve God with all your heart. May the Lord richly bless you is our prayer.

but to say that I love Him with all my heart! I pray this will be a blessing to you all!

God bless each and every one!

Your Brother in Christ,
John King (age 20)

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. I am thankful and happy to tell you that the Lord, by His grace, took me from living my life in unbelief and opened my heart to receive His Word. This happened exactly three years ago. I am fully persuaded to believe that if we completely yield ourselves to our Lord, He will not only forgive us of our sins and add His blessings on our life, He will also fill us with His Holy Spirit and reveal His Word to our hearts. As a result, each yielded vessel will brilliantly display the token in their life.

I want to encourage each reader to pursue a more intimate relationship with Jesus Christ. Reading my Bible, listening to and reading the messages given to the prophet, Brother Branham, by God has had an incredible impact on my walk with God. When I'm struggling and let my social life or work take too much time away from my prayer and reading time, instead of letting my guilt get the best of me, I just confess to the Lord that I've been negligent, and ask forgiveness. He never promised we'd have sunshine everyday. He knows what we're going through in our daily lives and He knows we'll make it through the stormy trials. We must support, encourage, and love one another. Though we see weakness in brothers and sisters, let's not be quick to criticize. Instead, pray one for the other. Let's try to see each other the way God sees us. He only sees the FINAL PRODUCT and when life gets rough, and the devil tries to remind you of your past.....remind him of his future!!!

Always walk with God,

Esther Loveall

I grew up in a Message church, but I know now that doesn't mean anything because, at the time, the Message (God's marvelous Word) wasn't in me. However, today I can say with assurance that I am

Dear Christian young people,

I count it a privilege to be able to tell you a little about myself and my walk with God! I've been serving the Lord wholeheartedly for about three and a half years now, and I want to tell you, He has blessed me abundantly in many ways!! I'm sure that you all can relate. There is a scripture that has been a real inspiration to me (as all of them are) II Timothy 2:15. I believe God is calling the youth to "study and show thyself approved unto God....rightly dividing the truth." We can't ride the wave of our parent's experience. We must meet God face to face for ourselves! I can look back in my life and see all the mistakes I've made through the years, but I believe telling you all of the bad things just give glory to the devil! I'm definitely not going to do that.

In closing I want to give God all the praise and honor for choosing me out of all the millions of people to be one of His own! I can't express my feelings enough,

To see these young women coming, weeping, life before them. They're at the crossroads. They're a victim of circumstances. What... Do you realize, old man, when we were boys, our boys has got ten times the temptation that we had? Sister, do you realize that your daughter has ten times the temptation you had when you was a girl? What will her daughter have? Look at the things, the pictures the devil's a painting. Oh, how we need to pray. ....Brother, do you realize we don't pray half as much as our fathers did? Pastor, do you know we don't put as much time on our knees as the pastors before us did? Women, do you realize you don't instruct your daughter and pray with her at night like your mother did you? Then what about it? Who's guilty? We're guilty. There's no way around it, we're guilty.

A Blushing Prophet, 1956

a child of God, by His unmerited Grace.

I continually thank and praise Him for the changing work He has done in my life and what He continues to do. In my daily walk with Him, He has taught me to become more dependent on Him because He is "the way, the truth, and the life". Through His love, He molds me and makes me through the fiery trials which cause me to draw closer to Him. As I grow in Christ, His Word becomes a continually unfolding revelation as the Great teacher, the Holy Spirit, leads and guides me.

He has been so good to me and blessed me with Godly parents, and a wonderful church that is a privilege to have an uncompromising pastor, who continues to hold a high standard. I give God all the glory for saving me from the dark pits of sin and making me a new creature in Christ.

My name is Ronald Allen Baugher. I am 22 years old. I was born in Washington state. I have five brothers and two sisters. I am a twin. My parents divorced when I was seven. The first years of my life were really rough. Most of my life, from 19 years old until now, was spent wandering around from state to state, hitchhiking. In the last three years, I spent sixteen months in prison. I was supposed to spend the next ten years there, but a little note to God changed my life. I left North Carolina hitchhiking because something told me to go.

After a few days on the road, I came to Flagstaff, Arizona. I was wanting to go south to Phoenix, when the next ride was a prayer answered by God. He sent a young man named Amos Peterson to me. He picked me up and began to talk to me about the Message. I knew it was for me! He invited me to church on the next day. Soon after that I was baptized and my whole life has changed. Now I know what love really is.

I've many new and wonderful friends that really care and who I really care about. God's Love has showed me the light to life eternal. The greatest gift of all has been given to me and, I just want to dedicate and live my life for the one and only God, who has saved me from death, and gave me life. I love you my Lord!

Sincerely Yours Forever,
Ronald Allen Baugher

Greetings and may God's peace be upon you.

My life is not an exciting one, (thank the Lord), in fact it's rather odd.

I was raised Islamic and had very little exposure to anything else. Christianity was taboo for me growing up, and from what I had learned about it in school, I was glad of it (The crusades and all.)

I am not going to say who I am or what this Message means to me, for if I did, it wouldn't fit on a page or less. I am going to say this. I love God! I love our Lord Jesus Christ. He brought me from where I was to where I am. I would just like to say God bless you to all who reads this. If you really want to know more about what God has done for me, you'll have to write me, and I'll send you my testimony. Well, so long, and God be with you.

Saints around the world,

Greetings in the name of Jesus Christ. My name is Robert Ray Detwiler. I'm an elect seed of God, predestined before the foundation of the world. I know where I come from, who I am and where I'm going, a born-again child of the King, filled with the Holy Ghost. I just give all the Glory and Honor to my Lord Jesus Christ. I have done nothing to deserve what He's given me, I'm just a sinner saved by God's "AMAZING GRACE" !!!

My testimony goes back 24 years ago. In May of '94 I was with my adopted grandparents, when I heard them say to a relative "Rob is a spoken word baby". (Gal 4: 28) I wasn't supposed to be born, but because of prayer, Mom had Rob, the middle son, between Ron and Mike. Being raised in a "so called" message church, I thank the Lord for it, because I knew of the Prophet, serpent seed, etc. It was all head knowledge and because there was a lack of fellowship amongst the people, I sought friendships in my school and got heavily involved in sports, dating, work, and non-christian friendships while still attending church. I played the best hypocrite. I hung out with all groups of people; cowboys, jocks, druggies, new wave, etc... I just didn't like cliques. My life was half church, half world.

Before I was eighteen, I lived in Hawaii three summers in which I was introduced to clubs, dances, girls, beaches, basically satan's Eden, and how to be cool. All of which our prophet spoke against. By twenty I had my own business, a lot of money, wealthy friends, and obtaining the fine things in life. In the world, I was a "success". (Matthew 16:26)

At 21, I was dating a Pentecostal girl. I shared with her my knowledge of the message (which was not much). She turned it down, but down deep inside I was being called. (Psalms 42:7)

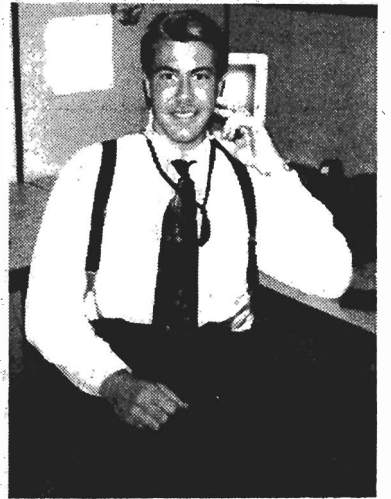

One night I felt to call a friend in the church where I grew up in. My friend blew my mind and told me there were other people that believed in Brother Branham, and they were all over the world!! You see, our church led us to believe that we were the "Only Bride" on earth, there weren't any other believers anywhere on the globe that believed the Message, "us four and no more", and that's all I knew. I was in a cave, but God was bringing me out. She told me about a little group in Boise, Idaho (which was close to where we lived). I went there and they told me about others in Tucson, Arizona. So I flew to Tucson in December of 91. I saw men and women, (women with long hair and dresses), and all nationalities, singing the same songs that I had sang when I was a kid. They believed the message? YEP!!!

Four months later, I moved to Mesa, Arizona. It's hot, palm trees, no rivers, no family, four million people, yet alone. There's only one reason I'm in Phoenix, Arizona - THE WORD OF GOD! I've been through many valleys, trials and tribulations, but they are all character builders and character is all I am taking with me. I once was troubled and afraid, but there's a peace that comes from only Him, and my Father in heaven has assured me of a place He has prepared for me. (John 14: 1-4,27).

In spring of '92 I was desperately seeking the Holy Ghost. I fasted and prayed, and I spent two days in the Arizona Desert. Two weeks later while at home, a still small voice spoke to my heart three times and said Isaiah 43:1. God spoke to me and pointed me to the Word, It's my Rock, and I believe It!

All who read this please understand that Jesus Christ died for me (Robert Ray Detwiler). Because of the blood, my sins which were many, no longer exist!!! (I John 3:9)

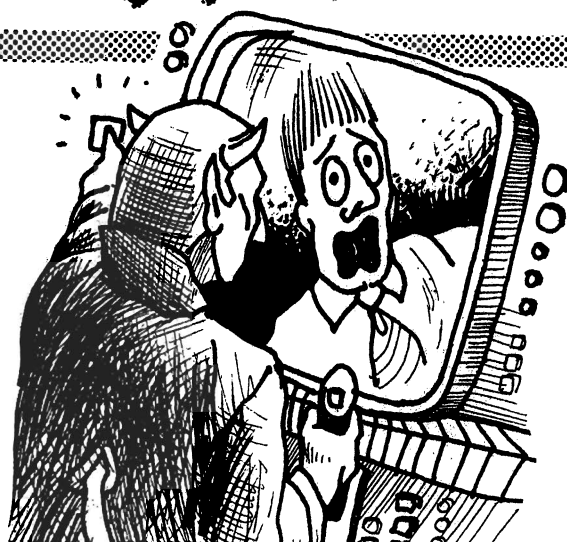

Rob Detwiler

This message (Jesus Christ) is my life. To my Lord Jesus Christ I give all glory and honor! I love Him with all my heart for it is He who has set me free!! (John 8:32)

Virtual Reality!

There is a new thing that's becoming more and more popular in the world. It's called Virtual Reality. I have studied a little bit on it, but I'll say this first. Even the name is enough to show us another sign of the kind of age we live in. Virtual is the opposite of actual. Actual means existing in reality. Virtual means the same effect but not real. Pretty neat HUH?? Now I'm not very smart so don't think I'm gonna lose you on this stuff. My Mom thought that I was so bright when I was born she called me Son, but still I'm not too smart. We'll just make this simple and get some points out of it that I hope will help.

It never ceases to amaze me how the devil in our time develops new things to tamper with our minds and even more so tamper with our imaginations. To prepare the world for tribulation, he has to first play around with peoples imaginations. As the prophet declares, "There will come a time in the name of the Lord, that people will go completely insane. The Bible said so. They'll scream and holler-great hideous things in their imaginary mind. The radios and things or television programs are producing it. They'll be such things as ants raise up on the earth that'll be as high as fourteen trees. They'll be- a bird will fly across the earth with wings four or five miles across, and people seeing them; they will scream and holler and cry for mercy; but it will be the plague." Knoweth it Not, 1965.

Your imagination is a powerful part of your being. It's the realm of illusion. If Satan can control it, he can make you believe any kind of lie. As wonderful as imagination is, it is still not real. I think the reason people today consume their time with video games, movies, or television is because real life is full of unhappiness. It's full of pain and doesn't look better for the future so they let these things stimulate the fantasy world to help escape reality. Unfortunately we have "so-called" Christians still playing with the above mentioned things. They too are showing that they have not found full satisfaction in Christ yet. Real life is miserable without knowing the living Christ. It's hum-drum, boring, and totally unsatisfying without Him. You can't blame people for searching for fun in another imaginary world if they don't have Christ in this one. Shame on Christians seeking escape in those things. We have the unfailing realities of the living God to enjoy. Anyway, on to Virtual Reality.

Cybernetics is the comparative study of human control systems as the brain, and complex electronic systems. Boy, what a mouthful. In my terms it means any kind of thing that has power to control us humans. That's better.... From cybernetics the word cyberspace is derived. When you are on the phone with someone you are in the place called cyberspace. You think that you are in control of the phone system, but really the phone system is controlling you. Why?

Because you believe you are absorbed in playing a hearing the real voice of a computer game. You stop real person on the other end of the line, but the voice you hear is not actually their real voice. We're listening to an electromechanical re-creation of their voice. It is a form of virtual reality because it gives us the sense of that person's presence, but they are not really there. The closer the system can duplicate the real voice, the more we believe in the illusion that they are there. Very quickly we ignore the system we are using and concentrate on the conversation. This is the realm of virtual reality we are talking about. Of course, it's far more advanced today than we can even explain. Not just hearing as with the phone, but nearly all of our senses are used to enter us into an almost perfectly real world. Ken Pimentell and Kevin Teixeira in their book Virtual Reality explain it this way. "The two key words here are sensory-immersing and interactively. The creation of an environment requires the immersion of your senses in a computer-generated world to create the experience of 'being there'. The question isn't whether the created virtual world is as real as the physical world, but whether the created is real enough for you to suspend your disbelief for a period of time. This is the same mental shift that happens when you get wrapped up in a good novel or become absorbed in playing a computer game. You stop considering the quality of the interface media and accept the computer-generated world as a viable one (just as you might accept the voice on the phone as real, even with a bad connection)."

Satan has reached into the imagination so much that he gets people to imagine their salvation!

Today, all kinds of things are being done with this "immersion of your senses." At the NASA Research Center in CA, men put on goggles with screens inside and explore a computer created rocky Martian landscape of Mars.

The goal of the NASA Virtual Reality Program is to explore the real planets without physically sending people there. I'm glad I don't need some computer to explore the heavenlies. I'm already blessed to sit in heavenly places while here on earth. (Just had to add that in.)

Pilots today are trained with virtual reality cockpits. It's just like a real flight. Their bodies even jerk around by the machine to give it a real feel. In Japan, a Shinjuku department store is already using a virtual reality system to help Japanese consumers redesign their kitchen. "A consumer provides a drawing of his kitchen layout which is loaded into the computer. He can then select the appliances, colors, and features he wants in his kitchen using the system. After he has arranged everything, he puts on VR goggles and a wire glove to take a tour of his design. He

Report On LOUISIANA CAMP

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. This is just a small report of the wonderful things that happened at Louisiana Spring Camp 1994.

Spring camp was filled with so many of God's blessings. The services, skits, activities and fellowship were outstanding.

The first day included registration, getting your cabin and reuniting with friends and seeing new faces. That evening Brother Donny Reagan preached "Living Between Desires."

Friday morning Brother Daniel Williams spoke on "The Journey of Life." Lunch was served and then campers enjoyed a scavenger hunt which run everyone from one end of the campground to the other..."literally." The evening ended with a sermon called "Peer Pressure" by Brother Reagan.

Saturday, Brother Tim Pruitt started the day preaching, "Don't Feed the Animals." Later that afternoon Russell Wallace directed an awesome skit called "Bound for the Promised Land." Brother Reagan then finished the last night with "Peer Pressure, Part II."

Easter Sunday started bright and early. Campers were up by sunrise to hear the last sermon by Brother John LaFontaine "Rolling Stones Away." After testimonies, the campers went to pack up and leave.

Everyone is always so sad when it is time to leave. When you are together with Believers the fellowship is so wonderful and leaving is always a sad occasion.

I thank the Lord Jesus Christ first and foremost for sending His wonderful presence and Word this year to Louisiana Camp. May God eternally bless Brother Tim Pruitt and Brother Daniel Williams for having Louisiana Camp over the years. God has used that camp to touch the hearts and lives of His young people. Until next year.....

"I just came back from the most wonderful meeting in my life..."

Dear Youth Quake News,
Greetings in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ! I just came back from the most wonderful meeting in my life! At the Louisiana Spring Youth Camp I gave my life to the Lord! He filled my soul with His precious Spirit and took all my flesh desires away! It was the first time I had a personal experience with the Lord and I will never forget it. I can't stop praising His name and telling everyone my testimony! It feels so good to put Satan on the run for once! And he better be prepared because I'm not going to stop! Amen!

I wasn't the only one to receive something from the Lord. In fact, everyone in our Youth Group from Wichita, that went to camp, received something special, which will remain with them forever. It was so great that our pastor held a special service so that each person that went to camp could give his or her testimony. The testimonies were a great blessing to everyone and also very encouraging.

HONDURAS REPORT

U.S. youth teaching "Higher, higher" to Honduran youth.

the team, we just moved the poles further apart and made more room for them. They approached activities as well as worship and church with a real enthusiasm and joy.

It seems that Satan works pretty much the same universally. The young people in Central America are fighting the same spirits we are fighting here in the states. The question and answer session included many questions typical of the ones we ask here. The messages preached by Brothers Paul, Elijah, and Vince could have been applicable to young people in any country. The recurring theme seemed to center on really knowing and seeking God after having an "experience" with Him and accepting ourselves just as He designed us. I guess the trip was really another verification of the Message to me. The same sweet presence and life of God that I witness in Believers here is present clear down in Central America. Seeing that, gave me a real peace. I would encourage every young person to visit a country like Honduras if they feel led. Yes, it does change your perspective by showing you what we have in America, but it changed me to see what they have in Honduras. They have a real joy, quiet dignity, and contentment that money cannot give. I did not return home with pity for what they lack, but rather a respect for what they do have.

To the precious Believers of Central America, I can say "Gracias" and "Dios te Bendiga" (God bless you). I am looking forward to the day when we will speak the same language and can really communicate heart to heart.

Worship after service

First of all, I'd like to say that I'm not much for writing down my feelings, and I believe that the WORD better expresses my TRUE feelings in a way that most Christians would understand without taking up a lot of youth quakes paper space. When I reflect back on my visit to the saints at Honduras, two scriptures stick out in my heart, and I'll explain why.

The first scripture is Acts 2:46. And they continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart.

It seemed to me when I observed everyone, they all came with a sense of purpose, our hearts, and let's not and that was to hear from forget. As you have God, including ministers and ministered unto the saints, us from the states. All were that God will not forget your coming; youth, adults, labor of love to Him. As Paul ministers, laymen, said, as you have songleader, etc., with the ministered... continue to do better yield to the Spirit of so imparting and sharing with others as God has God. In this we all continued imparted unto you. This in the temple daily with one scripture is also fulfilled in accord breaking the bread of those who took part in life with one another in what sending and praying for ever way God had broken it to those who went. God bless you us. (when I say this I am not and remember me in your just talking of the ministry prayers. only, but I speak of the youth I like to take this also) whether in a song, in a opportunity to give thanks to those at Evening Light testimony, in a revelation, in suffering for His name sake, Tabernacle, Youth Quake, and or whatever way He blessed Brother Paul for your prayers us, so did the saints bless and helps in this trip for the one another, bringing about a singleness of heart, through Lord.

ENCANTE DIVINO - A PRIMERO VISTA

SOMEWHERE ACROSS THE SKIES AND WATERS THAT'S GREEN AND BLUE, THERE'S FRIENDS AND FAMILY AND FELLOWSHIP THAT'S TRUE. THOUGH BORN AND RAISED IN AMERICA, THERE'S A PLACE MUCH MORE HOMIER THAN MY OWN. IT'S THE PLACE WHERE THE SAINTS ALL GATHER IN HIS GLORY AROUND HIS THRONE. THOUGH I'M SINGLE AND NOT ENGAGED, AND TO ME THAT'S QUITE ALRIGHT I NEVER THOUGHT I'D MEET A WOMAN, WHICH FOR ME, WOULD BE LOVE (DIVINE) AT FIRST SIGHT.

HER CHARACTER WAS UNCANNY. HER SMILE WAS CALM AND SWEET AND WHO COULD THINK THAT A YOUNG MAN COULD FALL IN LOVE IN LESS THAN ONE WEEK.

SHE SPOKE WITH PSALMS OF PRAISE, SHE'D LAUGH WITH SUCH PEACE AND JOY, HER BEAUTY WAS JUST ENOUGH TO CRUSH THE HEART OF THIS LITTLE PREACHER BOY.

BUT ALAS, THE TRIP HAD TO END. THIS YOUNG WOMAN I HAD TO LEAVE. IT WAS HARD FOR ME TO BEAR THIS EVENT. MY HEART DID GRIEVE.

OH, WHAT A FEELING I FELT, WHAT JOY, WHAT GRACE, WHAT ACCORD. IT WAS GOOD TO BE IN HER PRESENCE; THE BRIDE OF OUR RISEN LORD.

DIOS LE BENDIGA, HERMANOS E HERMANAS. GOD BE WITH YOU UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN IN HIS ARMS, AMEN!!!

Ghost, and to tell you the truth, I became lost in my repentance towards God. I told Him how sorry I was of acting like I had been, and that no matter even if He did reject me I was going to serve him for the rest of my life. When the brothers laid hands on me and anointed me with oil, it was then and there I was gloriously filled with the Holy Ghost. They told me that God had sent a Prophet to this generation by the name of William Branham, and I immediately knew it was truth for I had finally received that which I had been looking for all my Christian life. They were leaving California due to a prophecy by Brother Branham while in Los Angeles, but they left me a Spoken Word booklet "The Oddball."

I shared my new found faith in God with all my friends, new and old. Winning my girlfriend Sandy to the Message and even winning my friend Mitch, who had first told me about Jesus.

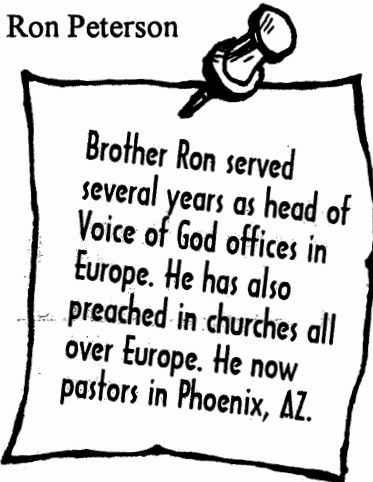

Since my conversion over 23 years ago, there on the beaches of San Diego, I can truly say that Jesus Christ is the Same Yesterday, Today, and Forever. I love Jesus Christ with all my heart, and I am truly thankful that God had seen fit to allow my eyes to be opened to see this glorious light of Malachi 4 being fulfilled in our day.

I pray that my testimony will be a blessing to some of you. Come and fellowship with us at our church in Phoenix, if you are ever out our way.

May the Lord richly bless and keep you is my sincere prayer, Shalom!

Hollywood Hypocrites

feels and sounds totally from the heart. He sings it that way. Obviously it is not from the heart. What do we have? Singers who act out that old Pentecostal anointed singing style, but inside they are full of sin. English's top song was called "In Christ Alone I Place My Trust". Evidently his trust was not in Christ alone. What are they? Deceivers and actors just like Judas. I might add that Sandi Patti (America's top female gospel singer) divorced her husband a few years ago. Lanny Wolfe (UPC Songwriter of many anointed songs we sing) was found recently in a situation of homosexuality. This whole world is full of this stuff. They reject reality and try hard to act out the attributes of Christianity. We see it also around our Message.

Let's look at it this way a minute. When a hundred and twenty believers came out of the Upper Room drunk on stimulation from revelation, satan was watching. The revelation of God's Word being fulfilled brought the reality of God in their souls, but all satan could see was the way they were rejoicing. He could not partake of or see what was causing their rejoicing. The only thing he could do was start to imitate what he saw. He continued to observe their lives. He saw the fruits of the Spirit such as love, joy and peace. He saw virtues such as faith, temperance, brotherly kindness. He saw nine spiritual gifts working in the church, but he could not see by revelation the giver Himself, like they did, so he started working with what he had. He started imitating all these things. This brings me to my final point. Satan can impersonate every gift, but he can't live the real life of Christ. Only His Bride can do that. Hear me out young people. Let's escape this acting scene. It comes from the great actor himself. You do not have to pretend anything. You don't have to put on a show for anybody. Our lives are transparent before God. He sees the real you. He wants you to be real, and even more than that, have the real life of Christ. You say, "Me, Brother Paul?" Yes...You!! Forget about what you look like to everyone else. Ask God to make Himself more real to you.

can open drawers, turn on water in the sink, turn the appliances on and off, and even listen to birds through the window. If everything also watch the video games you expose your mind to. Most of them are all about killing. There are documented cases of boys prophet said in Satan's Eden, 1965, "But now, the cunningness of the devil now, makes the people believe they are Christians when they are not." He likes to get people to imagine they are OK or even to imagine they are saved.

I can only close this article by saying the same thing that I have said throughout this issue of Youth Quake. Young people..., don't stop short of knowing the real person of Jesus Christ. Don't lean on your imagination, that's not real. Never believe what your senses declare. Believe the Word and all of it. I encourage you to listen to and read the message The Greatest Battle Ever Fought. In there he said, "There has got to be something happen inside. If you don't, that's artificial put-on for down in your heart you desire to do it anyhow. It can't be artificial, it's got to be real." I pray that God has shaken you a little bit with this issue of Youth Quake. We cannot play church games today. We have to know where we stand and forsake just a virtual religion. God bless you!! looks, feels, and sounds the way he wants it to, the computer places the customers order based on the layout and items selected."

WOW!!! Man is sure feeding a lot off the tree of knowledge. I believe enough has been said for you to get the idea of what virtual reality is.

Every Christian after reading this should look at these modern inventions, not as cool but as a clear takeover of human beings by satan himself. He is the god of this evil age. We must get sealed in Christ. Our senses and all of our being do not belong in satan's world of fiction. Even what we read can be something that hurts us. There is even novels being read by some girls. Some are OK, but most get your realm of imagination going so much it gets out of control. The result is young people living in a dream world instead of enjoying real life with the Lord. Sisters have a dream husband in their mind. He is a perfect, tall, dark, handsome, oil well. What happens is their dream just doesn't fit with this short, Holy Ghost filled man with crooked teeth attending their church. Their imagination keeps them from the correct way of praying for a Godly husband. You fellows must who have killed people after spending a lot of time in front of some Dungeons and Dragons software. They started to believe that the world inside the screen was real. Guys..., it is better just to make a clean escape from all of it.

Since man fell from his position in Eden he has sought to get out of the bondage of this life. Art, theater plays, and books have been developed through out the ages to help them escape. In 1941 the first broadcast of television signals began. The T.V. might have been a great tool for the Kingdom of God. Instead it has become satan's number one instrument. Why did men allow it though? It is an escape from real life. Movies are also an escape and when you escape into them most of the time you escape into satan's world. What is satan's world? Virtual joy and happiness but not real joy and happiness. Virtual love and beauty but not real love and beauty. Virtual strength and power but not real. Besides all of this, within his world is also a virtual religion. A virtual Christian, but not a real Christian. Satan has reached into the imagination so much that he gets people to imagine their salvation. The

The "P's" that bring us to Perfection

The Prophet foretold that because of Predestination we will receive the Promise and then begin to Pay the Price by a life totally surrendered to Prayer by which we will become first Purged and then Purified and ready to receive a true Pentecost with which comes Praises as well as Power and a full revelation of His Presence (in that day you shall know...) also a Peace (rest) at the knowledge that He is Perfecting us so that He may come and take total Possession of His little Bride and take her home to His Palace in the sky (Promised Land).

At the time of this writing this I believe. We (the Bride of Christ) are at the Place where we must decide whether we are Prepared to "Pay the Price"--for once He gives the ones the "burden of Prayer" who are Prepared, there is no turning back.

TESTIMONY OF A YOUTH

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

I praise God that He has some young people in this dying age that we are living in that want to spread His Word and live for Him.

I'm twelve years old and I would like to encourage the young people to love and serve Jesus with their heart, soul and might and never do as I have done.

I was nearly raised in the Message. We came into it when I was seven years old. Thinking that if Mom and Dad were Christians, I was too. As you know, that was not the way it was. At the age of ten I decided to give my heart to the Lord and live for Him and be baptized. All the time I held onto the scripture, "But ye shall be filled with the Holy Ghost not many days hence," (Acts 1:5) and at the age of eleven I got the Holy Ghost. Well, as the devil makes you think, I thought that was it. I was going to Heaven and I would make no more mistakes (that was my first mistake). As you know, I was wrong.

Well, as everybody has, I've made my share of mistakes, but I just tell the Lord I'm sorry. It hurts when you fall, but that's the part of being a battle scarred soldier. So just remember when you fall, just ask Jesus to forgive and help you and He'll do it too!

"The Calling"

I hear a Voice calling,
"Come up a little higher,
Up where the Eagles soar,
Where burdens become lighter,"

I lift my eyes to heaven,
And I wonder, how can I Ever reach that calling,
Ever climb so high?

But still the calling lingers,
And it seems to pull me on,
To where my heart is yearning
Where I know that I belong.

The first steps are the hardest,
Or at least they seem to be;
For I am weak and feeble,
But this climb will strengthen me.

I pause only to listen
For that Voice I long to hear;
For with each and every calling,
That Voice become more dear.

I struggle on a little farther,
Reaching heights unknown;
And though I'm bruised and battered,
I know I'm nearing Home.

So onward I am pressing,
'Til I reach that Call Divine;
Gaining victory on the way,
One step at a time...
With His nail scarred Hand in mine.

Be Real to Me

Heard all about it. No way we could doubt it.
The marvelous things He has been.
The Christ in the pages, has lived through the ages,
and made himself real to men.
But I've been desiring the Word that's inspiring,
raising Him from history.
This is my prayer, Lord Jesus, be real to me.

Be real to me, God of Glory, personally.
Here in this present hour, indwelling power.
Great mystery, unveiling and letting me see.
Unfailing reality, be real to me.

The prophets, the law, the theme of it all,
it seems you were in every thing.
The message of Noah, the power of Elijah,
the song that made David to sing.
Then in your plan, you came in a man, a God we could touch and could see.
Showing so clear your desire to be real to me
